DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE
The house on the farm of Joseph C. Adams on Route 50, is one of the outstanding Federal dwellings in Dorchester County. It is a handsomely proportioned townhouse, three bays long and two deep with a steep 'A' roof and a narrow and deep chimney, which gives more verticality to the mass. On the east is a two bay long wing the full width of the main part, which was probably added subsequent to the main part. The entire structure with apendages is covered with ersatz brick. The sash have the classical arrangement of 9/6 on the first floor and 6/6 on the second, both having louvered shutters. The roof pitch allows for full size windows (6/6) in both gables.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Although this house has not had the best of care it is one of the best forms of a Federal dwelling in the County. Some effort should be made to see that it is preserved either as a residence or a commercial establishment.
